Ethics Culture Questionnaire

Please complete the following questions about your company. In addition, provide an executive summary of these responses for inclusion immediately prior to TAB 1 in your entry binder.

1. Does your company have an employee responsible for monitoring/handling ethics issues? Y or N
If yes, indicate title and who this person reports to within your company.

2. Is your company involved in any significant litigation or government oversight that might have negative ethical implications? If yes, please include a brief but thorough explanation in your executive summary. Y* or N
3. Does your company measure the sound ethical conduct of employees? Y or N
If yes, is this measurement tied to your company's compensation structure? Please explain briefly in your executive summary. More detailed information can be provided in TAB 2. Y or N
4. Does your company offer employees a mechanism to seek counsel/resolution on ethics-related issues/conflicts in a confidential manner? If yes, please explain briefly in your executive summary. More detail can be provided in TAB 2. Y or N

Note: We are aware that most businesses in today's environment, especially larger businesses, have faced challenges in this area. Such company problems will not automatically disqualify a company from consideration for the ethics award. What is of interest and value is an explanation of how these matters were handled by the company.*
